DETAILED ACTION

1. The request filed on 1/26/2000 for a Continued Prosecution Application (CPA) under 37 CFR 1.53(d) based on parent Application No. 09/231,854 is acceptable and a CPA has been established. An action on the CPA follows.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-22 are allowed.

The indicated allowability of claims 23-25 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Shapiro et al. of record and Ben-Haim '951. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

4. Claims 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shapiro et al. '367 of record.

Art Unit: 3737

Shapiro et al. disclose a method for determining a catheter depth, position and orientation including: inducing a set of orientation values within at least one sensing coil (214, 216, 218), determining the orientation of the at least one sensing coil, inducing a set of position values within the at least one sensing coil and determining the position of the at least one sensing coil using the positional signal values and the determined orientation. See col. 2 lines 41-53, col. 3 lines 6-23, col. 3 lines 37-40, col. 4 lines 6-34, col. 4 line 68 - col. 5 line 4, col. 6 lines 20-30, and col. 9 lines 20-29.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shapiro et al. '367 in view of Ben-Haim '951.

In regard to claim 25, Shapiro et al. disclose a method for determining a catheter depth, position and orientation including: inducing a set of orientation values within at least one sensing coil (214, 216, 218), determining the orientation of the at least one sensing coil, inducing a set of position values within the at least one sensing coil and determining the position of the at least one sensing coil using the positional signal values and the determined orientation. See col. 2 lines 41-53, col. 3 lines 6-23, col. 3 lines 37-40, col. 4 lines 6-34, col. 4 line 68 - col. 5 line 4, col. 6 lines

Art Unit: 3737

20-30, and col. 9 lines 20-29. Shapiro et al. differ from the claimed invention in that a plurality of catheters are not specifically addressed. Ben-Haim et al. disclose a method for tracking a plurality of device and reference catheters within a patient's body. See col. 3 lines 41-59, col. 9 lines 19-42, col. 10 lines 9-43, col. 11 lines 27-51 and col. 12 lines 29-49. It would have therefore been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person of ordinary skill in the art to track more than one catheter as taught by Ben-Haim in the invention as taught by Shapiro et al. to provide a more accurate and efficient means for performing a medical procedure.

Conclusion

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shawna J. Shaw whose telephone number is (703) 308-2985. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
